

If your child is not meeting any of these vision milestones, talk to your family physician or optometrist:

6 weeks of under	6 weeks to 3 months	3 to 6 months	6 to 12 months	12 months to 2 years
Child stares at their surroundings while awake.	Child's eyes glances from one object to another.	Child's eyes move to inspect surroundings.	Child's eyes turn inwards as objects move close to their nose.	Child looks where he/she is going when walking or climbing.
Child briefly looks at bright lights or objects.	Child's eyes follow a moving object/person.	Child's eyes move to look for the source of sounds.	Child watches activities in the room for longer time periods.	Child points to objects or people.
Child blinks in response to light.	Child stares at your face.	Child swipes at or reach for objects.	Child looks for dropped toys.	Child guides their grasping of objects with their vision.
Child's eyes and head move together.	Child begins to look at their hands, food or bottle.	Child smiles and laughs when he or she sees you smile and laugh.	Child visually inspects objects and people.	Child looks for and points to pictures in books.